This year in our classroom we will be using the behavior chart below.

Off the Chart = Teacher = 9 points Off the Chart Awesome!
Top of the Chart = 8 points Top of the chart!
Outstanding = Red = 7 points Excellent Role Model For Your Peers!
Great Job = Orange = 6 points Doing Great!
Good Day = Yellow = 5 points Doing Good!
Ready to Learn = Green = 4 points Starting our day off right!
Think About It = blue = 3 points Warning
Teacher's Choice = Violet = 2 points Teacher chooses a consequence for student.
Parent Contact = Gray = 1 point Phone Call home or office referral

All students will start the day out by having their clothespin on "Ready to Learn" (green). Students will have the chance to move up from "Ready to Learn" for good/excellent behavior. Students will move down from "Ready to Learn" for misbehavior. Each color will have points associated with it. Students will receive "Caught being Good Tickets" for receiving (X) amounts of points. When several tickets have been collected, students will be able to trade those tickets in for rewards. Possible rewards are lunch bunch, homework pass, visiting the prize box, and etc. Please sign below saying that you understand our classroom behavior policy. As always, please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
