Curriculum Update

Social Studies: We are continuing to study how Florida grew into the state we are today.

Science: We are learning about energy and its uses.

Math: We are beginning geometry, learning about angles, lines, segments, points, shapes and rays. Students are encouraged to study vocabulary to help build foundation with geometry standards.

ELA: We are reviewing the standards we have already completed and working on opinion writing.

Valentine Celebration

We will be celebrating Valentine's Day by exchanging Valentines. Students are encouraged to create their own Valentines Box or bag! If your child is interested in sending in Valentine's, please make sure they have a Valentine for everyone in the class.

Progress Reports are now online!!

Please remember to check for your child's Quarter Mid-point Progress Report on Skyward. Skyward is available to parents always, but this is just a reminder that we are halfway through the 3rd Nine Weeks.

Parent-Teacher Conferences

Just a friendly reminder that I have started Parent-Teacher Conferences and I would like to have them all completed before testing season begins in March! If you have not met with me to discuss your child's strengths and areas of growth, please e-mail me at sara.patton@tvcs.org to set up your conference time!

Remember, 1 parent-teacher conference is mandatory for all families.

Thank you for all of your encouragement at home and thank you for the privilege of teaching your child.

Happy February!
