This year fifth grade will have the opportunity to dress as a book character for Book-O-Ween on Tuesday, October 31. More information about the details of the day will be coming home soon. As part of this activity we are asking that each student has read the book for the character or person they portray. This character/person and book will need to be approved by their Language Arts Teacher. The requirements for the book are as follow:

1. The book may be fiction or nonfiction.
2. The book must be in the student's AR level.
3. The book must have been read this school year and be read before Tuesday, October 31st.
4. The student must A.R. test on this book before October 31st.

On Tuesday, October 31st, the fifth grade classes will do in-class projects about the book they have chosen. They may choose to dress as the character or person that day if they like. All students will do the in-class project whether they dress up or not. The students must bring the book to class with them on Tuesday, October 31. Please return the bottom half of this form to your Language Arts teacher by Friday, October 6th. More information about specific costume attire will be sent home school-wide closer to October 31.
